Invest in your future by empowering professional development today

Quality cannot advance without building internal improvement capacity among all staff. Vizient® is offering an opportunity for healthcare staff at every level to broaden their knowledge and expertise. Over three days, this workshop will create a valuable opportunity for individuals to be involved in leading and delivering change, from improving patient care to transforming services across complex health systems. This workshop prepares the learner to lead performance improvement efforts in their organization and practice with the tools and methodology learned in a simulated environment. Participants will come with a project, build upon it during the workshop, and provide a report at the end of the workshop. Join us for this virtual education!

Target audience

We encourage performance improvement professionals, process owners and organizational leaders and sponsors to join.

Registration fees

- Vizient members $1,500 per attendee
