

Contracting Councils Charter

Purpose and structure

Client input is the cornerstone of the Vizient® competitive contracting process. To ensure we award agreements serving the needs of the majority of our clients, we offer several options to provide input.

Each contracting council is composed of up to 20 individuals, representing the most engaged healthcare organizations within the Vizient clientele. To be certain each client segment is fairly represented, we carefully evaluate applications to ensure councils are balanced across our diverse client base which includes academic medical centers, pediatric facilities, acute care facilities, nonacute care facilities, and considers such factors as size, diversity, geographic distribution, etc.

Vizient's competitive contracting process

Contracting councils provide input at a minimum of four points along the nine-step contracting process (dark green).

Councils work within the Vizient input framework to garner client input. In addition to contracting councils, there are advisory councils, task forces and expert panels.

Advisory councils

Advisory councils provide strategic direction and sourcing input relative to areas of client need specific to various classes of trade and functional areas within the healthcare space. Examples include the Ambulatory Surgery Advisory Council and the Responsible Sourcing Advisory Council.

Task forces

Task forces provide deeper levels of expertise in specialized or cross-disciplinary categories. They manage categories from prior to the request for proposal (RFP) process through contract launch and implementation, in lieu of a contracting council. Examples include the Medical Nutritional's & Enteral Feeding Task Forces.

Expert panels

These discipline-specific panels work in parallel with each contracting and advisory council to capture the "client voice" from a broad representation of the clientele. Panel participants share their expertise virtually through pre-RFP surveys, as well as client preference surveys. The information obtained is used to develop bid criteria and is also used as additional input for the client preference nonfinancial score on the RFP scorecard, thereby directly impacting the award's outcome.

Roles and responsibilities

Facilitator

A Vizient staff member from the relevant business unit where the council resides will serve as a facilitator to assist the council chairperson and vice chairperson. The facilitator partners with the chair and vice-chair of each council to perform the following functions:

- Conduct oversight of the contracting council, task force, or expert panel
- Recruit and select new participants
- Provide group direction
- Ensure timely communication and follow-up with participants
- Participate in various Vizient meetings
- Create and disseminate online surveys
- Ensure client feedback is fully incorporated into the sourcing process

Chairperson, vice chairperson and past chairperson

The chair of each committee works with the facilitator in the following areas:

- Agenda development
- New member selection, assisting with candidate screening and providing recommendations on finalists
- Meeting management, aiding the group in adhering to the agenda, managing meeting time and flow, and ensuring professional interaction between all participants and presenters
- Member participation, performing necessary follow-up with any council member who may experience issues with participation, attendance or conduct

Each year, Vizient and the sitting chairperson select a council member to serve as the future chairperson. This member then serves the following year as vice chairperson before taking their seat as chairperson. After a one-year term of service, the chairperson retires to the status of past chairperson for one additional year before ending their term of service.

Council Members

Contracting councils are an integral component of the Vizient competitive bid process, which operates according to the principles of the American Bar Association Model Procurement Code for evaluating bids and determining contract awards. As members, council participants are responsible for providing input and assisting with decisions within the following steps of the sourcing process:

Identify client needs

- Determine RFP strategy and product category minimum requirements
- Provide feedback regarding quality, product offerings, service and other pertinent factors
- Provide insights into new and innovative technology or new market entrants
- Share knowledge of emerging trends and best practices
- Provide input as needed on terms and conditions or other potential negotiation points

Develop and release RFP

- Determine whether a category is high complexity or low complexity
- Approve minimum requirements and pass or fail factors that must be satisfied for a supplier to be considered for evaluation
- Determine financial and nonfinancial relative weights, taking into consideration that the category will dictate the importance of price versus nonprice factors
- Approve nonfinancial evaluation factors
- Assign weights to nonfinancial factors

Evaluate potentially acceptable proposals

- Score RFP responses for high-complexity bids
  - Review all responsive suppliers' RFP submissions
  - Assign a grade to each supplier's response to each question
- Participate in vendor product fairs or sample product evaluations
  - Engage with suppliers who present solutions at live council meetings
  - Evaluate sample products as needed

Finalize agreement

- Evaluate post-best and final offer updated scorecard results
- Provide final award structure primary approval
- Provide input on the strategy of either bidding or extending contracts at appropriate points in the life cycle
- Approve any contract extensions

Meetings

Council meetings are generally held monthly via web conference. Each call lasts one to two hours, depending upon content. If a council has no business in a given month, Vizient will cancel the call with timely notice. Some councils elect to meet less frequently due to the nature of their portfolios. Meetings are scheduled a year in advance and published to members. Members receive electronic calendar invitations a year in advance.

Councils generally meet two times annually in-person to conduct business that requires live interaction. These meetings are usually held in the Dallas-Fort Worth area but occasionally are hosted in other cities. Meetings typically last two to three days, depending on content and purpose, and may involve activities such as supplier presentations, live scoring of bids or product demonstrations. Vizient funds in-person meetings in accordance with its council reimbursement policy.

Terms

Council member terms are three years in duration. Should an active member be selected to serve as chair, the member's term will be extended accordingly to allow one year as vice chairperson prior to assuming the chairperson role. After serving one year as chair, the member will serve one year in a past chairperson role before ending their term of service.

Ethics and compliance

Members must avoid conflicts of interest in their council work. A conflict of interest is any circumstance where a member has a professional or personal interest in or connection with any company or individual if it might influence (or appear to influence) the member's independent judgement.

Council Members should always act in the best interests of Vizient. Members should exercise sound judgment and reasonable business discretion while avoiding any appearance of impropriety.

Members should report any potential violation of policies or procedures or ethical or legal wrongdoing using the Vizient anonymous third-party compliance hotline at (800) 750- 4972 or online at www.ethicspoint.com. The hotline is available at all times to employees, clients or any parties or persons involved with Vizient.
