

PRODUCT DISRUPTION BRIEF

Mead Johnson infant formula (updated January 15)

Mead Johnson warehouse struck by a tornado on July 9; product availability varies.

Current conditions

On July 9, Mead Johnson's warehouse of finished goods in Mount Vernon, IN, was struck by a tornado. This facility was one of three locations where Mead Johnson stores finished goods designated for acute hospitals. The tornado damage was limited to the warehouse and did not impact the manufacturing plant. Mead Johnson has diverted all inbound deliveries to their other operations U.S. warehouses.

Due to the disruption, the following products continue to be out of stock. Items below are readily available in 2oz bottles, see alternative code.
